n° 11

toys = communication tool for kids & parents all over the world kiko+ & gg* is a minimalist-design wooden toy & gift brand from Osaka, Japan.
Founded by two Japanese female toy designers, Kaz* and Nov*, the company has been making eco-friendly toys for 15 years. Working closely with both Japanese and international designers, the brand is known for reinventing disposable plastic toys into longer lasting wooden creations.
The items are always created with fun, functionality and design in mind.
All toys are designed to spark creativity and the child's imagination.

UFO

kiko+ UFO, an intergalactic wooden balance game for little outer space fans. 50 friendly aliens have lost their way on planet Earth. Can you help the aliens board their wobbly UFO and get back to their galaxy far far away?

Try and stack the funky alien figures along the UFO's edge without the UFO or aliens toppling. Or build martian pyramids or alien parades to practice your stacking and counting skills.

Quick guide on how to play the balancing game:

- LEVEL 1 (easy) Add a handful of aliens into the UFO base for stability and balance. The more aliens inside the UFO, the easier to stack figures along the edge.
- LEVEL 2 (medium) Gradually decrease the number of aliens inside the base. The fewer the aliens, the wobblier the UFO will get. How many can you keep on now?!
- LEVEL 3 (hard) For the most challenging playing level, empty the whole UFO base. The UFO will be X-TRA wobbly - beware of falling martians!

Let's play with fun-shaped aliens! ^う ^ち ^ゅ ^う ^じ ^ん

So fresh and so green - NEW limited edition Mint telephone

While the Japanese think of Kuro-denwa (black telephone) as the classic vintage rotary phone, Westerners may well remember another popular hue from back in the day.

The green rotary phone gives off serious retro vibes- so we brightened it up and brought it back.

Say "hello" to mint green telephone, a color both fresh and nostalgic. It just might inspire you to have a good old-fashioned conversation.
